CURRICULUM
Students are accepted from 2 years of age. The curriculum includes RAD classical ballet, pointe, conditioning, contemporary, lyrical, repertoire (competition classes) and exam preparation classes.

PERFORMANCES
Students, from Baby Ballet through to Advanced 2 Ballet, will be given the opportunity to perform in the Academy's annual end of year concert, held in mid – late November, at the Sandra Donovan Sound Shell. Please note that there will be some extra rehearsals in the month leading up to the concert.

Students from Grade 3 Ballet and above will also be given the opportunity to enter dance competitions with solo/duo/trio items, and troupes.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE (RAD) BALLET EXAMS
Students from Grade 1 Ballet and above will be given the opportunity to sit RAD ballet exams. Student's wishing to sit their exam are required to attend 2 ballet classes per week, as well as conditioning, and may be required to attend extra rehearsals in the month leading up to their examination.
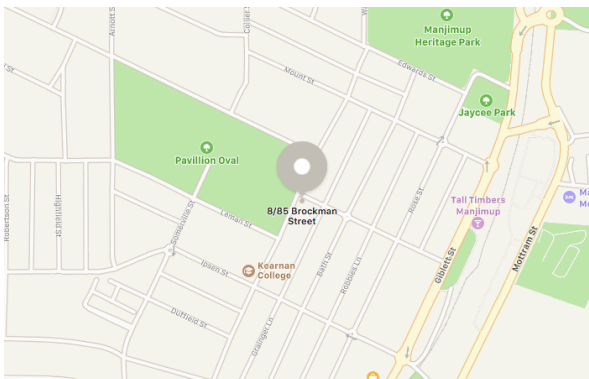

COMPETITION WORK
All students wishing to participate in competition work are required to attend 2 ballet classes per week, conditioning, and their scheduled competition class until the end of our competition season.

Student's will also need to be available for private lessons throughout January and first term to learn their competition items.
